Freely You have loved us
Freely You have given
A wondrous gift of love
A chance to know Your heart

Your love is flowing in us
An endless raging sea
You've shown us what true love is
You've set our spirits free

And now it's our turn
To freely give to You
Everything that our hearts of love yearn to

As a precious dove in our hands
We now set You free
It's our delight, Lord
To take care of Your needs
