Your love in me fills me
You are my everything
You guide each step, You lift me
To see everything as You see
May Your will be known
Your glory shown
Your Grace and Your beauty be seen
Through Your love in me

Your love in me frees me
To care for only You
All that I am I lay down
For the joy of living with You
May Your gift of life
Your sacrifice
Be honoured so passionately
Through Your love in me
