

Your kingdom come

You've loved me all my life
Shaped me by Your hand
Poured out Your heart
Now with You I stand
Sure of Your love
And who You are
Hallelujah

You lead each step I take
As I walk with You
Through the unknown
All I know is You
You're all I need
You are with me
Hallelujah

May all You've done, and all You gave
Returned fulfilled in me each day
So I proclaim the God You are
Through me You're known, cherished and loved

Your kingdom come
Your will be done
Hallelujah
